BOY IS AGAIN ON HIS HONOR.

ADJUDGE BROWN LETS JAECHKE
GO ON PROBATION.

For the Second Time Youth Who Was Trained in Utah Is Freed on His Word—Boys' Gang of Bicycle
Thieves Is Sent to the Detention Home.

Friday, the 13th, seemed an unlucky combination for bicycle thieves, according to the showing made in the Juvenile Court. Yesterday appeared to be a day filled with a bunch of these thieves.

Judge Wilbur had before him for consideration a negro boy from Panama, Clyde Davis, who confessed to having taken some one else's bicycle,
and Robert Ashbury, another colored boy, confessed to a like offense, and said he only got $1.00 for it.

Ashbury's mother, who said she was a Holiness woman, testified a stir in court by refusing to be sworn. "I'd rather pray," Judge Wilbur looked at the delinquent negro lad before him,
and then at the lad's mother, and dryly remarked: "Well, I think there's need of it right here."

But the worst was yet to come. William Harang, Bert McFarland, Lawrence Fleming and Alverdo O'Brien came up in a body to contest to their several stealings of bicycles. The boys, it is claimed, are members of what is known as the "Sixteen Club," composed of that number of East Los Angeles youths, who have made the officers of the law much trouble.

One policeman testified to having secured from members of the gang from twenty-two to twenty-five wheels of valuable parts of wheels. Some of the wheels had been buried. The boys were sent to the Detention Home for review, when the judge will pass judgment upon them.

Sitting with Judge Wilbur were Judge William Brown of Salt Lake City, and Judge Harold Salomon of Sweden, who is here to investigate the workings of the Juvenile Court.

When the case of Ferdinand Jaeschke,
the lad who skipped out from Utah
when he was put on his honor to report
at the Ogden prison, was called, Judge
Wilbur asked Judge Brown to preside.
It was a strange incident. The boy who had stood before Judge Brown many hundreds of miles away from Los Angeles, again stood before the same judge to answer for his breach of trust in not carrying himself to prison as he had promised to do.

Judge Brown again put the boy on his honor, and asked him to give himself up to the local Juvenile Court when he next comes to the city, and not to force the Utah officers to begin extradition proceedings.

Young Jaeschke admitted that he knew that he ought to be punished, and last evening told Judge Brown he was ready to place himself in the custody of the Los Angeles Juvenile Court. He will be placed under the supervision of a probation officer, with the injunction to report at certain intervals. If he does not "make good," Judge Wilbur will then turn him back to the Utah authorities.

NO RETIREMENT FOR FRANCE.

ASTRO'S FLOP HAS NO EFFECT
ON HER ATTITUDE.

Gen. Matos Says the Venezuelan
President Would Not Have Retired
Unless Sure of Regaining His Position at Will—Executive Alleges Ill Health as the Cause.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
PARIS, April 13.—The attitude of France toward Venezuela has not changed in consequence of Gen. Castro's retirement.
Gen. Matos, leader of the last revolution against Castro, in an interview
today on the subject of the latter's returnment from the Presidency of Venezuela, said that Castro would not have abandoned his position unless absolutely sure of being able to regain it at will. Matos added that Castro probably desires to take a vacation in his native Andes, and that the acting President, Vice-President Gomez, will surprisingly carry out his instructions and give up the Presidency when requested to do so.

ADVICES FROM CARACAS.

CASTRO ALLEGES ILL HEALTH.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
CARACAS (Venezuela) April 10.—
[Via Villamstad, Island of Curacao,
April 12.] Gen. Castro yesterday transferred the Presidency of Venezuela to Vice-President Gomez. In an address which he made on that occasion, Gen.
Castro said that his retirement was due to ill health, but he did not say whether it was temporary or permanent.
It is generally understood, however,
that his retirement will last about three months. During the course of his remark, Gen. Castro said: "Our present international position is completely defect and cleared up and leads us to believe that everything will proceed with the closest harmony on the foundation of mutual respect and consideration for rights, as universally recognized, and that all pending matter will be permanently settled by some friendly arrangement, or by arbitration, the most recent of civilization. The financial situation of Venezuela cannot be more disastrous. It is known in Venezuela abroad that all Venezuela's endeavors are religiously carried out."
As a result of Gen. Castro's retirement, the Venezuelan cabinet has resigned.

DOOR TO MANCHURIA TO OPEN.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The State Department has received through the American embassy at Tokio another assurance from the Japanese government of its firm adherence to the principle of the "open door" in Manchuria. This follows the announcement last Tuesday that consuls would be permitted to open their offices in certain Manchurian ports and interior towns in May and June next.
Business interests engaged in the extra trade had been getting apprehensive that this great country was to be shut out and shut out with Japanese before any opening was afforded to foreign trade.

There is a $10,000 insurance policy in the name of Mildred Coles, the Valentine victim whose body was exhumed Thursday, and identified by Mrs. Claudia Hays Cold Cure, guaranteed cure in bottle, each bottle $1.00. City office 222 S.

AN ARTISTIC STABBING.

Enter Uses Palette Knife on Neighbor
and Cuts Him for Defending
His Wife.

Sounds of strife by night and the screams of women congealed
a crowd of listeners in the vicinity of Park last evening, and at about the same time the police received word to go to 446 W. 14th street, where a woman was being committed there. When the officers arrived they found the neighborhood
in a state of excitement.
A man, who lives across the street from R. H. Swarington, of No. 446
W. 14th street, claimed that Swarington stabbed him three times with a palette knife during an encounter in his yard. The wounds were upon his breast and behind the right ear.
The ambulance surgeon arrived
and the wounds were dressed by a physician
in that vicinity.

The story of the affair as told by Swarington, who went of his own accord to the Police Station, was to the effect that his wife went across the street to their neighbor's house and remained there for some time. Swarington followed her and when he saw her cross the road to bid her come of their neighbor's yard. Swarington stated that he then seized Mrs.
Swarington by the shoulder and began striking her toward the gate, where her right hand protector ran to her aid and rescued her. Swarington is a painter and is an artist by profession.
He had a keen pair of steel pinnacles in his hand. With this instrument he claims the cuts upon the breast head of Burr were inflicted. The wounds were not deep or serious. Burr stated that the wounds were inflicted by some other larger instrument than the palette knife. Just what he does know, at the station Swarington
was interviewed by the detectives.
He is inclined to think that the stabbing was done with a painter's palette knife or similar weapon, as his clothing was slashed through several thicknesses. Swarington is detained at the station.

WOMAN CHASES BURGLAR.

Langdon Discovers Thief in Her Home and Makes Futile Effort to Capture Him.

Discovering a burglar in her home
yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Dr. Fred Langdon of No. 941 South Alvarado street drove the man from the house and chased him three blocks down the street. So long as she could keep robber in sight the plucky woman followed him as fast as possible, but after running three blocks the burglar dodged around a corner and disappeared.

Mrs. Langdon was in her room on second floor of her home when she encountered the thief. He had come through the rooms on the first floor and had discovered that Lang-don's purse. This he had in his hand when he was discovered. The man he realized his presence was seen the man ran for the back door and then around the house to street.

number of persons were called the scene by Mrs. Langdon's cries

THIEF ESCAPES ON CAR.

Worker Chased by Victim
Through Business Center, Takes Street Car.

he returned to his room after his absence yesterday morning.
When E. Lewis of No. 127 West 4th street noticed a man disappear through another door with his contents $450 which he had under his pillow.

Lewis gave chase and the thief,
his victim in close pursuit, dashed in the stairs to the street. Down crowded business street they ran, as Spring street to Broadway. At point the thief swung on a street car which was already in motion and dashed away. Lewis followed him until he disappeared inside.

Lewis called to the conductor to stop the car but the official called back for to take the next car and the unfortunate victim had to watch the bearing the burglar and his money appear down the street.

skillful attempt to enter and rob
residence of ex-Senator Stephen Dorsey, at No. 2619 South Figueroa street, early last night, was frustrated
by the prompt work of Special Officer John Hendrickson, in charge of patrol in that district. Hendrickson riding by the ex-Senator's residence shortly after 9 o'clock, when he saw a man coming from the grounds,
called to him to stop and the man immediately pulled his gun as officer approached, starting to run at the same time. Hendrickson shot him with his revolver. The man dropped suddenly to the ground, uttering a cry, but broke
a thorn hedge and disappeared in the shrubbery. Hendrickson searched the premises thoroughly, but had no success.

the history of Los Angeles, one David

he cried out sharply after the report.

FEARS FOR HUSBAND.

Deserted Wife, in Pitiable Condition,
Is Afraid He Has Met With Foul Play.

Alone in the city, without a friend
to whom she could turn for assistance,
and in a delicate condition physically, Mrs. Sanford B. Brown, who has been staying at No. 240 West Second street, was taken in charge last night by the police and placed in the care of the police matron, who found that the woman was in a most pitiable condition. In connection with her sad plight is the fact that her husband has disappeared.

As Mrs. Brown grew more ill each day her illness was made harder to bear because of the thought that her husband had met with an accident or foul play, and it finally resulted in a weakening of her mental powers, so that when her case came into the hands of the police she was wandering aimlessly about the streets, moaning and crying as if her heart would break.

The woman says that her husband left her several days ago and since that time she has heard nothing from him. She will not believe that he has deserted her in her time of trouble.
The woman will be cared for by the matron until some disposition of her case can be made.

DR. NIMS GETS DAMAGES.

SAN JOSE, April 13.—Dr. Herbert J.
Nims, a local physician, was awarded $1100 last evening by a jury in Judge Hyland's court in his action against C. P. Cunningham, a merchant, whose daughter died in a San Francisco sanatorium four months ago after what was alleged to have been a criminal operation.

On the day after the girl's death Dr.
Nims was arrested on a charge of manslaughter, but was acquitted in Judge Graham's court. Nims claimed that he acted as a benefactor to the girl and that he placed her in a well-ordered and clean establishment. The defense charged that he was guilty of contributory negligence, which resulted in the death of Miss Cunningham.

CINCINNATI MURDER.

CINCINNATI (O.) April 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George B. Wilson, aged thirty-five years, of San Francisco, is dead at the City Hospital from the fracture of his skull. He was evidently murdered, and the secret of it has passed his mind.

The body was found by policemen at Findlay and Western avenue, early this morning. A long stream of blood flowed from the wound into the subterranean passage. Wilson had not been robbed.

At New York the Board of Trustees of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Thursday elected
Col. Alfred Wagstaff acting president.

bottle of Warner's Safe Cure, and it worked wonders from the start. I con-

"About five years ago I advised a friend, who was very ill and lame from

MAYOR DROPS PYROTECHNICS.

SUMMONS RAILWAY ATTORNEY TO EXECUTIVE CONFERENCE.

Meeting Results in Selection of New Safety Fender for Street Cars. Mr. Dunn Gives Assurance That Pacific Electric Will Not Build Elevated Tracks Without Permit.

Attorney W. E. Dunn, representing the Huntington railways, went to the City Hall yesterday morning and spent two hours closeted with the Mayor in the executive office.

The reserves in the police and fire departments were not called out; the City Hall tower is still square on its foundations.

Spook Howton hung expectantly around the outer office during the whole of the conference. When the Mayor escorted his guest to the door and shook hands with him in parting, Howton's air was that of the gallery gods when Green and Kid Solomon fought that last draw.

"How could you do it, Billy; how could you?" moaned one of the little men who had seen the hand of the chief executive and that of the railway attorney meet in friendly farewell.

He, too, had expected better things. In the old days when he was city prosecutor at the Police Station, "Billy" Dunn walked into turbulent political caucuses and quelled them by a single wave of his hand. The Mayor is something of a fire eater himself, and the rift-rail had 'opes for that meeting.

But when the attorney walked away, putting leisurely one of the Mayor's perfectos, and the chief executive turned back to his office chewing a half-section of a Henry Clay—well, what's the use?

But the two-hour conference was productive of a number of things of interest to the city.

"Mr. Dunn came at my request," said the Mayor. "I had a few things concerning the city and the railways to talk over with him; and I sent for him and he came. That is all there is to it."

After the first half-hour City Attorney Mathews took part in the conference. Some of the things discussed were:

A new ordinance providing for the licensing of street cars.

The equipment of street cars with a new safety fender.

The operation of street cars over West Seventh street, between Spring and Broadway.

The elevated tracks which the Pacific Electric Company proposes to build across Los Angeles street for the purpose of bringing Long Beach and San Pedro cars into the Pacific Electric station at Sixth and Main streets.

Details of the electric floats and displays at Fiesta time.

As the result of the conference the following moot questions were settled as far as the Mayor and the street railways are concerned:

Local street cars will be equipped with the "Eclipse" fender. It is the one that experts apparently agree is likely to do the most good and the least harm.

The Pacific Electric Railway will not begin the construction of its elevated tracks until it receives formal permission from the city to do so.

The company owns a spur-track franchise across Los Angeles street, but this does not give it permission to elevate its tracks so as to come into the Pacific Electric station on Grand.

The railway company will submit its schedules of car service for inspection by an authorized agent of the city at any time to assist the municipality in determining just how many cars are being operated on the streets. Apparently this license discussion has been a very great ado over a very little matter.

There will be no tearing up of tracks on West Seventh street, at least not right away. The railway company has an apparently good title to a right of way on that thoroughfare, and the company and the Mayor have submitted the question to City Attorney Mathews for final adjudication.

The city and the railway companies will work together in harmony to make the finest electrical display possible while the Easter visitors are here.

And, finally, if there is to be any airing of soiled linen on the part of the city and the railways, it will be postponed until the Shriners have come and gone. We shall not present ourselves to them in the light of a municipality divided against itself.

FROM THE CITY TO THE OCEAN.

BROAD BOULEVARD TO BE BUILT TO SANTA MONICA.

Roadway One Hundred Feet in Width to Traverse Beautiful Section of the County—Committee of Prominent Citizens Inspects the Route and Strongly Approves It.

The project to construct a boulevard from Los Angeles to the sea was given impetus yesterday when the Committee on Good Roads and Roadways of the Chamber of Commerce escorted a party of business and professional men over the proposed route.

After an all-day ride through thirty miles of country, it was decided that the matter be placed before the people of the city and county at a special election without delay.

It required six big touring cars to carry the party, which consisted of Allen Hancock, Lee A. McCormick, former Judge Stephens, and a number of other prominent men. The party was accompanied by Mr. H. H. Hutton, W. T. Gillis, Supervisors Wilson, Brady, Alexander and Patterson, and R. D. Wade, Roy Jones, C. L. Bundy, H. M. Gorman, Dr. W. A. Lamb, E. P. Clark, J. P. Noble, G. Fellister and A. J. Graham.

The start was made from the Chamber of Commerce, and thence to Westlake Park, where the road to the sea was taken.

The route of the boulevard, which is to be in the narrowest parts 100 feet in width, is along Wilshire boulevard to the city limits, and thence along the sloping open country below Hollywood, Colegrove and Sherman, striking the grounds of the Country Club near the foothills.

Between the Country Club grounds and Wilshire boulevard, there is a distance of one and a half miles which will have to be covered with a new road. From the Country Club grounds to the city limits of Santa Monica there is an excellent road, and at the outskirts of Santa Monica a boulevard, four miles in length, which a land company is constructing to the sea.

While in Santa Monica, the party was entertained by the city officials, and dinner was served at the Ship Hotel.

Mr. Blanchard said last night that the matter will be taken up with the county and city authorities at once, and the necessary preliminary steps taken for issuing bonds to make the boulevard a reality.

NATIVE SONS' HIGH JINKS.

Los Angeles Will Entertain Visitors from All Parts of California This Month.

Extensive preparations are in progress for the entertainment of the Native Sons of the Golden West, when they descend upon Los Angeles immediately after the meeting of the Grand Parlor in Ventura.

The Grand Parlor will assemble on the 23rd inst., and will bring to Ventura a body of from 400 to 500 delegates, representing an organization of over 20,000 persons. Besides these delegates it is estimated that fully as large a number of other Native Sons will be in attendance.

The Los Angeles Parlor of the Native Sons have combined in extending an invitation to this whole body to visit this city immediately after the convention closes, for the enjoyment of a three days' programme of entertainments, excursions, etc.

The annual high jinks, a great parade, and the conferring of the degree of the "Curly Bear" will be features. The Native Sons of the Golden West will tender the visiting Native Sons a reception during their visitation, and this gives promise of being a swell society function.

Committees in charge of the entertainment programme have been selected as follows: Transportation: H. J. Leland, chairman; W. T. Craig, J. T. Newell; accommodation: Ed. B. Lovie, chairman; B. L. Farmer, Aubrey Austin; finance: Dr. E. M. Lazard, chairman; P. A. Stephenson, J. W. Bernheim; reception: J. W. Birnbaum, chairman; J. J. Regan, F. A. Stephenson; decoration: M. P. # RAMONA ACRES

"The Flower of the San Gabriel Valley"

Beautiful Ramona Acres has been placed upon the market to meet a growing demand for ideally situated ACRE LOTS AT CONSISTENT PRICES—full acres with modern real estate improvements—quickly accessible to the city.

That this beautiful subdivision is already meeting this demand is evidenced by the extensive sale of lots before the publishing of a line of advertising.

Ramona acres adjoins the progressive city of Alhambra—just a short walk from Pacific Electric car line. It is also within 600 feet of the new Huntington line to Covina (to be completed this year) which will bring the property within 15 minutes of First and Spring Sts. Ramona Acres is accessible to all the advantages of modern Alhambra.

Although prices of lots are remarkably low, Ramona Acres is not being exploited as a "cheap lot" proposition. It is designed for model country homes as is suggested by the generous building restrictions.

From a home or speculative standpoint Ramona Acres is easily the best value-giving subject within the shadow of Los Angeles today.

If there is one spot in the famous San Gabriel Valley a little better than the others, it is surely beautiful Ramona Acres. At no point in Southern California may a greater wealth of mountain and valley grandeur be enjoyed than from this beautiful subdivision. Sierra Madre, Monrovia, Pasadena, Altadena and other interesting places are plainly visible from Ramona Acres

GHIRARDELLI'S COCOA
When anything is the best in its class there are distinct reasons for the superiority. There could not be superiority without individuality to the article or product.
Ghirardelli's Cocoa has several individual features.
Among them are:
Absolute Purity.
A Dark Color.
Exquisite Flavor.
Delicious Taste.
A new process is being used in making Ghirardelli's Cocoa. It retains the oil of the cocoa bean—the oil that conserves and up builds health.

GREETED ITS PRESIDENT.

New Star in Occidental Constellation.

John Willis Baer's Warm Reception.

Strikes Hands With the Student Body.

Occidental College was wildly under the influence of the constellation of "The Great Baer" last night. The

DR. JOHN WILLIS BAER.

Idea was "hit off" in great shape by Clarence Spaulding in his greeting from the junior class.

John Willis Baer, the new president of the college, is here on a brief visit, the first since his acceptance of the presidency, and he was given a reception in the Hall of Letters last night that was "rah, rah, rah" from start to finish.

It was really a hilarious sort of a reception for a man who had never before been received as the president of a college, and it Baer was an old man it might have shocked his nerves. As it was, for the greater part of the time he was convulsed with laughter. He is not likely to be shocked by youthful hilarity of the night sort, and while he is a broad-minded Christian gentleman, the college boys will find in him a strong ally in all their recreations and sports. Dr. Baer is in reality only a boy, but his early development into an aggressive Christian worker in connection with Christian Endeavor, and more recently as missionary secretary of the Presbyterian church, has made him one of the most eloquent, aggressive and widely-known Christian workers in the world.

He has lost much flesh within the past couple of years, and is evidently in a highly-sensitive nervous condition, that made itself apparent in his voice when he began his response to the sundry and effusive addresses of welcome, but he came back to himself fairly well before he finished his talk.

The Hall of Letters was filled on the main floor with students and all the members of the faculty sat on the rostrum, while the gallery was packed with visitors. Greetings were extended to President Baer, who sat in the place of honor, as follows: By Dr. W. S. Young, acting president, on the part of the faculty; seniors, J. P. Hagerman, juniors, Clarence Spaulding, sophomores, Arthur Paul; freshmen, Harry Hodge; fourth-year class, William Roberts; third year, Edmund Fugate; second year, Irving Swart; first year, Robert Jeffrey.

All the addresses were good and some of them contained rich veins of humor and they all ended with a "rah, rah, rah" of some sort. By the time they were all through with the new president was hidden behind a bank of fragrant roses and carnations.

Midway in the proceedings, the winners of the year's athletic events for the past season were called up and decorated with handsome medals at the hands of Miss Means, which ceremony served as a sort of a valve for the escape of a lot more of the pent-up enthusiasm of the student body.

Dr. Baer was deeply moved by the manner in which he was received. "I strike hands with you," he said. "The welcome has been warm and Christian, characteristic far beyond what I had any reason to expect. I accept the trust."

For the athletic enthusiasts, who have been sort of looking his way out of the corners of their eyes ever since he was elected president, he had this to say:

"If this is to be a Christian college, why not on the athletic field? Learn to lose like men, and like Christians; learn to 'root' for work well done, whether in your own college or in another."

He announced himself as being in favor of clean, healthy sports, conducted with strong manliness on the part of the students, and it is apparent that the winning athletes of Occidental need have no misgivings on that score.

His whole address was characterized by the spirit that has filled his life as it has been known in years past; it breathed of a strong, aggressive, sunny Christian life, and as he resumed his seat he received a great ovation at the hands of the students.

The student body then adjourned to the library, where a reception was held that afforded a closer greeting between the head of the institution and the individual student.

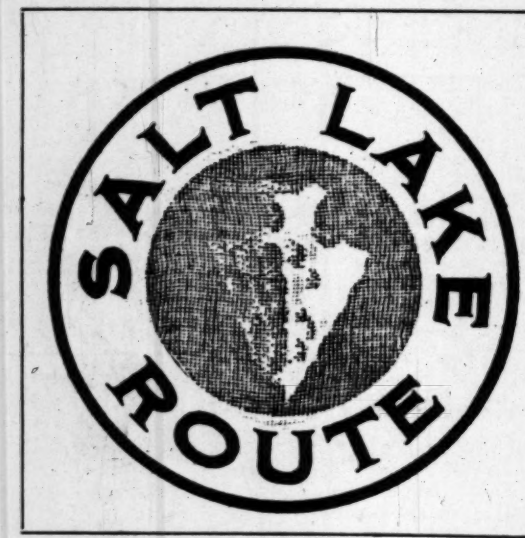

President Baer will be the guest of honor at a banquet to be given at the Hotel Westminster on next Friday evening, after which he will return to New York to close up the business of his present position with the mission board, to return here permanently in the fall. It is the commencement of a new epoch in the life of Occidental, and the universal feeling is that it is a great step to the future.

Men I Certainly

Can give you the results you are looking for. I cure you by original reliable methods. Not by mail. But by personally conducted office treatment, which routes the cause of your trouble forever.

Varicocele Cured 4 to 6 Days

Many men suffer from varicocele and have many times treated without satisfactory results. I want to say to all such that my treatment personally applied will cure you in 4 to 6 days, and the cure will be permanent.

Functional Decline

Termed Weakness by Some

The success I have had in restoring functional derangement has been a great surprise to many who have met with failure in former treatment. It's the right treatment applied in the right way that brings the satisfactory results. By my direct method all inflammation is removed, and free, healthy circulation is established.

Contracted Diseases

Failure to quickly cure these conditions is due to harsh measures, which are the direct cause for chronic conditions. My treatment is most clearly and perfectly

I cure Rectal, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Piles, Fistula and Blood Diseases, Wasting, Nervous and Chronic Conditions, causing functional derangement, impairing strength and vitality.

It's The Little Points That Count.

It's the inverted L vent or opening in the middle of the back of the Sack Coat.

It's the little point of the actual buttoning of the vents on the coat sleeves or cuffs.

It's the width and long sweep of the lapels.

It's these "little points" that determine the real up-to-date-ness of a 1934 Sack Suit.

It's these points that are to be found in Brauer-Krohn 1934 Sack Suits. It's these very "little points" that lend a distinction to all our garments, that infuse into Brauer-Krohn clothing a vim and vigor of style that is mightily appealing to young men in particular.

Deputy Sheriff's Rail-

Corpus in Vain.

of Death Valley. Is Legally Kidnaped.

King of the Desert
was legally kidnaped by two men from San Bernardino county last night and in spite of a habeas corpus, issued by Judge W. H. Smith, which was waived in favor of Attorney Wallace Wide-man, he was carried bodily to San Francisco to answer to a charge of murder.

It was the time that the "King of the Desert" was arrested his side arm, a .38 Smith & Wesson, was taken away, but Pearl did not have time to be kidnapped, for his attorney, a writ of habeas corpus was issued to prevent his being carried away and he spent the night in jail and will face Judge
W. H. Smith in the Superior Court at 9:30
this morning.

It was more dramatic than a play at cross purposes, and the manager and attorney, then Attorney Fred Wideman, was projected into the east end of the last moment the news that two deputy sheriffs had kidnapped the "King of the Desert" in the big desert town to bring him all concerned to try to convict him.

WIDEMAN AND THOMPSON
were taken to the automobile and rushed to the home of Judge Smith on South street. They did not make a formal petition, but made a case and Judge Smith issued a habeas corpus directing Sheriff
Walter Scott before
the morning.

With this document the attorney and Court Clerk Henry H. Smith, who had rushed him into the automobile, full speed to the court, about a score of citizens escapes from being run over had to hold his hair
in vain.

He was all in vain.
The arrival of the attorney and Deputy Sheriff Case, Wideman, took possession of the man and hurried him to La Brea.

The attorneys were unsuccessful. Sheriff refused to return the man.
The man was made to the train was just preparing to leave on a minute, cried
"Wideman as he rushed across the street waving the writ."
"I'm holding on," replied
Case grimly.

"I want a writ of habeas corpus," Wideman and he thrust the writ at the hands of Case.
"I'll hold you down," remarked Case
to the writ.

Men's Hosiery and Underwear On Sale Monday

A man once said to us that he knew Coulter's was the best place at which to buy men's furnishings, but he didn't come because of the crowds. We explained to him how this department is reached directly from the Broadway entrance, to the right, and now he's one of our best customers. We get many more new ones every week; mostly inquisitive at first; afterwards they come because of the extra values we give.

A word today about two Monday bargains, (that doesn't mean today nor Tuesday.) On Monday only we shall place on special sale a line of 200 dozen mill samples of men's hosiery, sent on to us by one of our New York buyers who jumped at the chance to get such values.

They're made of mercerized cotton, in two-tone drop stitch and pin stripe weaves, colors: Nile green, browns, blues and similar summery shades, ordinarily you'd expect to pay 35c to 50c a pair for their equals; Monday they're going to be three pairs for fifty cents.

Men's silk finish combed Egyptian yarn shirts and drawers, in ecru or white, some drawers are double-seated, all shirts are short sleeved. On Monday only, they're 40c a garment. See if they haven't fifty-cent quality stamped all over them.

Easter Ruchings

Choice selections of dainty ruchings are here to add the finishing touch of charm or color to your Easter toilette. Sold by the yard, at 15c, 25c, 35c and 50c. of chiffons and the much-called-for nets, in many styles, or by the box, as many women prefer to buy them. We've boxes of six neck lengths, all different in design, for 35c; more elaborate ones, with widow's ruching, ruffled and shirred styles, and snowflake effects at 65c.

75c Hatpins 25c

Hatpins add to or detract from one's good appearance to an astonishing degree. For the procrastinators who've put off their buying till the eleventh hour we've two unusually good bargains. A line of 50c and 75c grades at 25c each, some of sterling silver, some set with colored stones or brilliants, all carefully chosen and in good taste. Another line, not so elaborate, at 10c; worth more.

RAILROAD RECORD. SALT LAKE TRAINS TODAY.

GENERAL MANAGER WELLS SAYS
TRACKS ARE CLEARED.

Senator Clark Will Spend Half a Million to Make His Road Flood Proof—Elevated Structure a Possibility on Alameda Street for the Southern Pacific—New Plans.

Special telegram to The Times from SALT LAKE, April 12.—Our last bridge will be completed tonight, after which Los Angeles Limited will resume its daily service. Los Angeles and Salt Lake division forces will meet tomorrow. The weather appears quite settled.

R. E. WELLS, the official confirmation of the closing of the huge gap in the Salt Lake and made by nearly seventy miles of abutments, the result of the tremendous outpour of the week of March 20. The first through train since March will leave Los Angeles tonight at 8 o'clock, being No. 2, the Salt Lake.

The first Los Angeles Limited over the repaired line will leave this morning Sunday morning, the me to be fixed today. The first train to leave Salt Lake will be No. 1, which will leave at midnight tonight.

The suspension of through traffic for most a month has cost the Salt Lake any thousands of dollars, and while passenger traffic has been easily diverted by other roads, a veritable constipation of freight has gathered on the tracks on either side of the ashed-out sections, to be ready for immediate movement upon the completion of repairs. The movement of this night will now begin with a rush, it will be pushed to the full extent of a motive power of the road until the blockade is cleared away.

In the meantime, in order to safeguard the road from a repetition of such an experience, the Clark interests have decided to expend during this year from half to three-quarters of a million dollars, if necessary, to put a whole line into shape to withstand the heaviest floods.

UP TO SAN DIEGO. Vice-President J. Ross Clark of the Salt Lake verifies the telegraphic reports of his brother considering the destruction of a branch of the San Diego road from Riverside to San Diego. Senator W. A. Clark, president of the road, has commissioned his other to ascertain to what extent the interests of San Diego will be willing to cooperate in the way of providing mainly and rights of way, and to make a full report upon the proposed.

Mr. Clark virtually admits the intention of his company to construct a line, provided it is sufficiently outgassed by the city of San Diego, and providing a feasible route, not paralleling the Santa Fe is located. That the building of a new Arcade Depot may cause the Southern Pacific at the same time to relieve the congested condition of Alameda street by the construction of an elevated structure by which its passenger trains will enter and leave the city, is considered among the more or less seriously contemplated improvements of that road.

Whether or not the construction of such an elevated way is to be regarded in the light of an immediate possibility, it enters very materially into the plans of the new half-million-dollar passenger station.

PLANS MODIFIED. As a matter of fact, actual construction on the proposed new station has been deferred pending the modification of the plans to admit of the entry by an elevated road without necessitating a remodeling of the building.

These changes in the plans for the new depot have already been made and approved. They provide for a main floor for the present on a level with the surface tracks. Should elevated tracks be run into the depot at any time in the future, the construction of the building will admit of another floor being built into the station on a level with the elevated tracks.

Southern Pacific officials deny that there is any contemplated change to an elevated road for their tracks entering the station by way of Alameda street, and explain the change in the plans of the depot as being merely in line with the general policy of the road to provide as far as possible in the plans of all its buildings in this city for a very considerable growth in business.

Fast Time Made. J. W. ### Directory Census Shows Great Gain of Los Angeles in Past Year—Fastest Pace in the Hills and on the East Side.

P OPULATION of Los Angeles, as per directory census,

Population of Los Angeles, as per directory, May 1, 1905 .....	197,614
Increase in eleven months .....	30,684
Average increase per month .....	2,789
Average increase per day .....	92

The tale of the remarkable growth of Los Angeles is told as above in the census just completed by the Los Angeles City Directory Company.

These figures are the result of a careful house-to-house canvass, and are declared by the directory people to be as nearly accurate as human ingenuity can make them.

According to this census, the population residing outside the actual city limits.

A fact of remarkable significance gleaned by the canvassers in their rounds is that, of the houses that were vacant for any reason the first time called, 80 per cent were occupied when later calls were made, thus showing that few houses long stand vacant. Added to this is the fact that the total tion is practically two and one-fourth times as great as it was at the time of the United States census in 1900. The population of this city then was 96,571. It was in 1908 the first of this magnitude, and probably the last.

Whatever may have been the growth in the thirty-five cities that were larger in 1900 than was Los Angeles, it is admitted that none has gone into decline. The largest of these cities has probably jumped to sixteenth place.

NO TRANSIENTS INCLUDED.

In this latest census, the directory publishers state that particular care has been taken to make no account of tourists or other transients. The figures are given as for bona-fide residents of Los Angeles.

As a guide, the board has been obtained by actual count of the number of permanent residents of each house visited by the directory canvassers. No use has been made of the door-to-door canvassers in some cities by multiplying the number of directory names by two or by some other multiplier, as upon as by using an accurate estimate of the population. The preponderance of adults in Los Angeles makes this plan of little consequence.

On the latest showing, more than thirty thousand persons have come to Los Angeles to stay within the last year. The largest number came from O. Chattanooga, Tenn., or Dubuque, Iowa, had been moved to this city, leaving behind a family that was in any one of those places in 1900.

A good-sized country town of nearly three thousand souls has moved in here in the last year. In the month has brought in nearly one hundred permanent residents, to say nothing of the thousands of tourists who are pouring in here in the season just drawing to a close.

Touching upon the matter of transient population, the directory publishers state that there have been as many as one hundred thousand of them here in one time.

Hordes of Tourists.

number of vacant houses at no time has been very great.

When the street and avenue guide is published in conjunction with the new directory, it will show in the same manner the amazing activity in the building of homes, which has continued for years. The new edition of this valuable adjunct of the directory has had position in the back pages of the big book. The directory itself now has been so ponderously increased that this plan will be impracticable in the future, and in the forthcoming editions of the street and avenue guide, or the householders' directory, will be a separate volume, although being delivered as usual to every subscriber to the directory.

Comparing the manuscript for this guide with the issue of last year, it is shown that on some of the short streets the number of houses has been doubled, while in all sections of the city it is shown that vacant lots have been filled with new houses and places of business. An unusually large number of new streets also has come into being within the last year, all of which are shown in the alphabetical order.

Unusual care has been taken by the publishers to make the new directory as accurate as possible. The canvassers have been employed, as many as ninety men being engaged at one time in the work of getting the directory up to date.

The canvass of the city began on the first Monday in January and it continued without cessation until April 15. Some of the men were doing canvassing. In some cases, when canvassers have called at houses and found that the family had moved, they returned as many as ten or a dozen times for the purpose of getting names.

Some of the expert directory workers are brought into Los Angeles each year at the close of the directory return at the close of the season here. The regular staff, however, is engaged in the work of the southern California throughout the year.

While the directory canvassers have made no count of tourists, it has been their province to eliminate the names of about fifty thousand tourists from their census lists. Had they sought tourists' names, it is estimated that they would have found double that number.

Duila Burks, general manager of the directory company, is so positive of the correctness of the count as made by his lieutenants, that he has more than once expressed himself as willing to bear the expense of the checking up of the figures in the event that they should prove to be misleading.

An interesting feature of the census is the table showing the approximate percentage of increase of population of various general sections of the city. The increase seems to have been greatest in the extreme northwestern and in the far southeastern regions, the former including Edendale, the Elysian Park hills and other northwestern territory north of Temple street, and the latter comprising the territory adjacent to Ascot Park. The approximate percentage of increase in these sections has been 33-1-3.

The "East Side," including East Los Angeles, Highland Park and Burbanks, is next in point of percentage, its increase having been 25 per cent. The increase credited to Boyle Heights and to the southwestern section of the city is the same—from 15 to 20 per cent.

LONG LIST OF NAMES.

It is estimated that the new directory, which will be ready for distribution between June 1 and 15, will contain 155,000 names, an increase of 25,000 over last year. Only the names of adults are printed, and only in a comparatively few cases are names used of

BABY BURIED IN YARD.
Coroner Finds Strange Case at Azusa.
Has Little in It of a Criminal Nature.

The investigation into the strange case of a baby being found buried in a back yard in Azusa has been concluded by the Coroner.

The child was born to a Mexican woman named Dolores Lopez, who was living with her husband at the time of her confinement she came in her trouble to the home of Francisco Cruz and begged to be taken in.

After the baby was born, however, she was received into the home and the older women of the family administered to her. The baby was boarded, however.

Some one advised her to bury the child in a hurry on the place and she allowed this.

Neighbors in Azusa learned of it, and became greatly excited, fearing that the child was a white one. It was made known to the District Attorney, who directed that the little body be taken up and buried.

This has been concluded by the Coroner. The facts which came up during the investigation are as follows:

The only really criminal feature to it was the burial of a body without the required permit. The matter will be allowed to drop.

TODDLES TO HER DEATH.
Baby Girl, After Sweets, Ground Under Wheels of Speeding Trolley Car—Mother Prostrated.

While playing near her home little Mary Raulston, aged nineteen months, innocently toddled into the street and was run over by a heavy team. The child was horribly mangled beneath the wheels of a rushing street car yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The child is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Raulston of No. 3635 W. 4th street.

Mrs. Raulston was busy with her household duties, and as Mary wished to go out that day with her mother, sunshiny, her mother put on her sunbonnet and left her toddling about the yard, amusing herself after her baby's fancy.

Mary often been allowed to play in the yard without being constantly watched, and had never left it before, but yesterday the child made a dash for the vacant lot between the back feet of her home.

Through this lot a path runs to the corner of Thirty-seventh and Maple avenues. The distance to the corner is not great. The width of the Maple avenue are very close together at this point.

The child had been taken through the lot by her parents many times when they were on their way to town and wished to take a car, and she had also been taken to the corner grocery on the same corner and tasted the candy. When she saw the street car the little girl continued to Maple avenue, and then attempted to toddle across the street to the candy store, where she was seen by a car.

At the corner of the Maple-avenue line.

Evidently the little girl did not see or hear the car coming, for witnesses declare that she did not look in the direction from which it was approaching, and they further say the motorcar was traveling at a high rate of speed. The car rushed across Thirty-seventh street. The child was struck, and the contrivance failed to hold the little body, and it rolled off and was caught under the wheels. In this position it was dragged nearly twenty-five feet, and then it slipped under the fender and both sides of the forward truck were run over the child. The child nearly cut in two at the waist, and both arms were cut off.

When the child was found, he was stunned by his loss, and the mother is completely prostrated with grief. Feeling that the railroad company is to blame, the motorman was unable to stop the car until it had traveled some twenty feet, when the child was struck. The body was removed to Bressee's morgue, and Coroner Trout will hold an inquest Tuesday morning.

PLAN FINE CHURCH.
First Methodists of Long Beach to Build Edifice to Cost Eighty-five Thousand.

Members of the First Methodist congregation of Long Beach have completed plans for a magnificent new church building, to be built at the northwest corner of Fifth street and Pacific avenue. Gothic in architecture and with walls of sandstone, it will be one of the most beautiful church edifices in Southern California. It will cover an entire quarter of a block, behind the old building.

The main entrance will be at the street corner, and there will be other entrances at the rear. The church edifice will be a masterpiece of architecture, and the pupil will be an innovation on Methodist churches—a baptistry.

The estimated cost of the building is $435,400. The building will be 100 by 100 feet, with a total seating capacity, in main floor, gallery and ladies' parlor, of 1,000. The building will include the Sunday-school room, which adds 805 to this total, or 2,405.

The cost of the credits for this ambitious undertaking will be given to Rev. Will A. Betts, who went to Long Beach last September from Whittier.

The building of the church was purchased for $24,000 by a syndicate, which will hold it in trust for the church. At the same time, the church was given for the building fund, which is receiving daily additions.

The present property of the church has grown in value from $3000 to $60,000 within six years, several bidders having proffered the latter amount for it recently.

PUBLIC SERVICE OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Mayor McAleer, City Attorney Mathews and Attorney W. E. Dunn, representing the Huntington railways, met in executive conference yesterday in the Mayor's office; there will be no car tracks torn up on Seventh street, at least not right away.

Resenting what they term "unwarranted interference" on the part of the Board of Public Works, contractors have raised their prices for all classes of street improvement.

The "Eclipse" safety fender is to be placed on all street cars; it must have the approval of the city and the street railways.

Judge York yesterday in the Wilmington incorporation case, upheld the constitutionality of the repealing act of the Legislature, which left the ground clear for a later incorporation.

The suit of Ethel Jones against Walter Jones, cattle king of New Mexico, has taken a new and rather surprising turn. It will come up again next week before Judge York.

The District Attorney is called upon to defend the appeal of the Dustless Roads Company from the decision of Judge Wellborn, which was in favor of the cities of Los Angeles county.

Attorney William J. Danford was arrested on a charge of forgery, and gave $1500 bail before Justice Pierce.

The case, which is H. F. Flick charged three of his wife's relatives with battery when he attempted to secure possession of his two children, was dismissed by Justice Austin in the Police Court yesterday on the ground that it was a struggle between husband and wife for the possession of their children, and, therefore, must be ruled on by the Superior Court.

Mike McClure and "Kid" Williams were arraigned yesterday on a charge of grand larceny, and are held for examination with bail fixed at $1500.

Walter J. Sutcliffe, charged with placing his wife in an improper place, was bound over for trial in the Superior Court yesterday, with bail fixed at $1000.

AT THE CITY HALL.
MUST PAY FOR MORE "VELVET."

STREET IMPROVEMENT PRICES SOAR HIGHER.

Board's Demand That Specifications Be Followed Causes Sharp Advance in Cost of Work—Contractors Seek to Lay Blame on Cement—Bids Are Few.

Incensed at what they term "unwarranted interference" on the part of the Board of Public Works, contractors have included a few more bolts of velvet in their bids for improving city streets.

Prices for all kinds of street work have been advanced from 10 to 25 percent over what they were four months ago.

Contractors say it is partly on account of the increase in cement, and partly because the board has selected a set of technical, hair-splitting inspectors.

Apparently the cement trust is a hard proposition for the lot owners.

Members of the board say that all they have done is to insist that grading, curbing and sidewalk shall be done according to contract.

"If the city were to insist on the technical forcing of all our contracts, every firm in the business would go broke inside of six months"—this is a statement made last December by the Council Board of Public Works by the president of a large contracting company.

The Board of Public Works rejoins that the only thing easily broken is the sidewalk that these philanthropic contractors lay.

Accepting the challenge of the contractors, the board has held a number of bids for further consideration, and rejected a number of others—just.

The board members consider the bids away out of proportion to the actual cost of the improvement.

The specifications for laying curb and sidewalk there is a provision for a liberal percentage of crushed rock. This crushed rock is valuable, before the Board of Public Works came into being the contractors mixed their cement chiefly with sand and good intentions.

At the time the board transferred the Vrooman Act inspectors from the street to the engineering department each man was cautioned to see that the proper amount of crushed rock is used in the mixture for curbs. And the men have been insisting that this portion of the specifications be filled to the fraction of a pound.

If the board insist on the fulfillment of that crushed-rock specification, said a leading street contractor yesterday, "we shall advance the price of both curbing and cement still higher. There is too much private work to be done for a firm to take street curbing at a loss."

Not by the price of street improvements has been advanced by the contractors until they are now, in some instances more than 100 percent higher than they were two years ago. The Board of Public Works would like to see these prices reduced, but the members say that they shall not be lowered on condition that inferior work be accepted. They have placed quality before price.

FOR NEW ARCADE.

S. P. ATTORNEYS HAVE PLANS.

Attorneys representing the Southern Pacific Company took the Board of Public Works into the corporation's confidence yesterday long enough to show them the plans for the new Arcade at the foot of Fifth street.

The company has purchased all the land lying adjacent to Fifth street between Central avenue and Alameda street. It now desires to close the 200-foot strip of Fifth street east of Central avenue and convert the same into a magnificent depot site.

But owners of property on Fifth and Sixth street east of Alameda have refused upon the present as a pretext to make application for a passageway through or over the railroad company's land from Central avenue to Alameda street. Their attorneys told the board yesterday that they will consent to the abandonment of the section of Fifth street only on condition that the railroad company erect for them a foot bridge connecting Central avenue with Alameda street.

The board apparently considered this a reasonable request. But the attorneys for the Southern Pacific side-stopped by asserting that it is a question on which the local officials have no authority to pass; it is something that must be taken up with the head offices in New York.

Then they waxed eloquent over the proposed new Arcade. When they were through the board got back to first principles by postponing action for one week. The president suggested that money actually involved—and which it will cost this county in the event of defeat—amounts to about $1,000,000 for railroads in the past and to date, there is, roughly speaking, $100,000 for application will go to the Council for final action. The legislative branch only can pass the ordinance abandoning that portion of Fifth street which the railroad covers in order to complete its Arcade.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

NEW CITY BY THE HARBOR.

JUDGE YORK SAYS WILMINGTON IS INCORPORATED.

The Repealing Act of the Legislature Was Constitutional, Leaving the Way Open for Action by the Supervisors, Which is in Accord With the Law.

Judge York yesterday handed down a decision in which he upholds the recent incorporation of the city of Wilmington, and in so doing simplifies the confusion that has been created by Lee A. McConnell. One or two mooted questions are yet to be decided, but the main contention is now decided on demurrer to the complaint in the case brought against the city of Wilmington by the Attorney-General of the State on the narration of McConnell.

The contention of the plaintiff was that the city of Wilmington incorporated on February 20, 1872, as a municipal corporation, by a special act of the Legislature, which act was amended on March 21, 1872. The principal reliance was placed on the contention that the city of Wilmington was incorporated by the Board of Supervisors, included within its limits territory embraced within the town of Wilmington incorporated in 1872 by special act of the Legislature, and hence, that the acts of the Board of Supervisors are void.

The defendant called the attention of the court to the fact that the act incorporating the town of Wilmington, and the amendatory act, were repealed by the Legislature in 1887. The plaintiff argued that such repeal was unconstitutional, because of the inhibition in Section 25 of Article IV of the Constitution of 1879, which provides that the Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any case where a general law can be made applicable; and also because of the provisions of Section 6 of Article XI of the same Constitution.

Judge York holds that this last section referred to relates to certain specified cities and towns and their mode of incorporation, and "organization," and the organization of a corporation is "to put into working order, to arrange in order for the normal exercises of its appropriate functions."

"All doubts with regard to the constitutionality of an act of the Legislature," says Judge York, "should be resolved in favor of its constitutionality. It appears that the framers of the Constitution by the provision considered did not intend to inhibit the Legislature from repealing special acts of incorporation of a town where no steps had been taken to 'organize' a municipality under the act."

The court also held that the fact that the complaint is not set out that Wilmington ever had organized under the old incorporation act, and, indeed, it was stated by counsel for the plaintiff that it had not so organized.

Having thus disposed of this alleged inhibition, Judge York next announced Section 25, bearing upon the inhibition of the Legislature from passing local or special laws in certain cases set out.

The court concludes that the repealing act was a special act, and therefore, the ground is first cleared by examining whether a general law can be made applicable to the disincorporation of a town incorporated as the town of Wilmington was.

"The Constitution," in the first instance," says the court, "submits the question of fact to the Legislature, as to whether a general law can be made applicable in such a case. The Legislature, in the exercise of its power, can make a general act applicable in the repealing of municipal charters should not be substituted for the Legislature, unless the finding of the Legislature is obviously erroneous."

Judge York also points out that it would be a mere technicality for the Legislature to have framed a general law for the disincorporation of towns incorporated under special acts before the new Constitution, where the fact that no organization of municipal government under them.

"Applying the rule that an act of the Legislature should not be held unconstitutional in doubtful cases," proceeds Judge York, "I hold that the repealing of the act in question was not prohibited by Section 25 of Article IV of the Constitution. It therefore follows that there was no town of Wilmington in existence at the time of the initiation of the proceedings for the incorporation of the city of Wilmington by the Board of Supervisors."

The court states that he has failed to find any substantial variance from the requirements of the law in the proceedings before the Board of Supervisors, and therefore the demurrer to the complaint is sustained.

While the court found it necessary to examine the constitutional questions involved on the reference to the basis of the suit in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, the bill of exceptions was served upon Dist. This bill of exceptions is in essentials a reproduction of the evidence, and all the points contended for form the basis of the appeal. JUDGE YORK SAYS WILMINGTON IS INCORPORATED.

The Repealing Act of the Legislature Was Constitutional, Leaving the Way Open for Action by the Supervisors, Which is in Accord With the Law.

OWENS RIVER FACTS—OFFICIAL.

UNITED STATES Reclamation Service Engineers report average flow of water in Owens Valley at 29,000 inches.

Average flow in streams and canals owned by Los Angeles 27,000 inches.

Chemical analysis of Owens River water at its worst shows less mineral salts than in Los Angeles River water. In ordinary condition, Owens River water carries about half as much mineral in solution as Los Angeles River.

Analysis of Black Rock spring water, represented by "knockers" to be strongly alkaline and harmful, proves it one of the purest natural waters in the world.

An ample supply of water can be brought from Owens Valley to Los Angeles at a cost, for construction of works, of $23,000,000.

From 75,000 to 100,000 horse power of electrical energy can be derived from the Owens River water supply by the city, which accounts for opposition of power and light companies to the project.

Dist. Atty. Fredericks personally gathered much of the important data used in fighting the case while East last year, and was assisted in arranging and conducting the defense by J. J. Servener and Hutton & Williams.

The California Dustless Roads Company has met much opposition to its plan of putting oil on the road was covered by their patent, and then it was that the New Jersey mother corporation came to the rescue and began the suit against the city of Redlands.

This latter corporation has been receiving money in royalties from some of the eastern roads, and the very life of the corporation was threatened by the adverse decision of Judge Wellborn.

The fight in behalf of every city, town or corporation using oil for road-making or dust-laying in this State has been borne by a little coterie of counties and cities, which does not include the city of Los Angeles, but in which the city has been deeply interested. The late Mr. Longdon was deeply interested in the question, and aided materially in bringing the litigation to a successful issue.

In Buying a Piano

The most emphatic feature to consider is its Tone. A beautiful case is necessary, a delicate action is indispensable, but TONE—that factor which gives color to the piano—THAT should be the first thought.

The Chickering Tone, as pure as the notes of a singing bird, always delights, fascinates, charms the person who has music in his soul and who can appreciate quality; its warmth, its sympathy, draws the true musician and holds him. That is why eighty per cent. of the musicians of Southern California prefer the Chickering to any other piano, and, if being their preference, they purchase it and hold it as a delightful companion.

Do you expect to purchase a piano soon? We accept other pianos toward a Chickering and make very liberal terms for payment.

WOULD-BE KIDNAPER FAILS TO PROVE A BATTERY.

Father Attempted to Steal His Own Children, but Was Beaten Off by the Relatives of His Wife, from Whom He Is Separated—"Pugs" Arraigned—Sutcliffe Held.

On the ground that the action should have been brought in the Superior Court, rather than the Police Court, Justice Austin yesterday dismissed the battery charge preferred by C. H. Flick against his brother-in-law, Vern Paul, Mrs. Nettie Mayham and Lena Taylor. Flick and his wife separated some time ago and she has kept the children, her mother, Mrs. Alice Paul, taking care of the two little boys, aged 4 and 6 years.

Flick wishes to secure possession of the children himself and went to the Paul home on the corner of Seventh and Mateo street last Tuesday and attempted to take the boys. The three defendants live at the same house and all took part in the melee which followed the attempt of the father to take the children away.

He charged them with battery upon his person and testified that the children were not being cared for properly and were allowed to go dirty and ragged. He said he wished to secure possession of them in order to have them placed where they could be properly cared for and sent to the Paul home to get them.

He claimed Vern Paul and the two women struck him a number of times and that Mrs. Mayham used a rifle and a club. Other witnesses said the rifle was not fired and that Mrs. Alice Paul testified that there was no rifle in the house and that none had been used.

The defense claimed that Flick went to the house and was ordered to stay outside the yard, but on the pretense of giving the children some fruit, entered and suddenly grabbed the two little boys in his arms and ran toward the gate. Vern Paul was standing in the yard and he grappled with Flick, but the latter succeeded in carrying the children outside the gate. Then Mrs. Lena Taylor, a cousin of the Pauls, who lives with them, rushed out and seized one of the children and hid him away from his father. Then Mrs. Mayham grabbed the other and took it away while young Paul held Flick.

Justice Austin denied that the case smoldered down to a struggle between father and mother of the children for the possession of the little ones, and as the Superior Court would have to rule on the question, he dismissed the case. Mrs. Vera Flick, mother of the children, is working to support them and denies that they are not properly cared for and will fight any attempt on the part of her husband to take her little ones away. Flick will probably bring his suit in the Superior Court to secure possession of the children.

Pugs Are Arraigned.

Mike McClure and P. Solomon, better known as "Kid" Williams, were arraigned in the Police Court yesterday on a charge of grand larceny and their examination set for this morning with bail fixed at $1500 each. For lack of money they are awaiting trial in the City Jail and the police say they have an excellent chance of going to the penitentiary.

They are both prize fighters of more or less local note, but of late they have neither been fighting or doing any other kind of work and the police believe they were "rolling" drunks and playing the "dip" in other ways.

They are accused of robbing J. F. Owens, a cement contractor of about $25 on Sixth street between Spring and Spring streets Thursday night. After their arrest they admitted taking 50 cents from the man, but declared they gave it back to him.

Youthful Drunk Held.

One of the lads who were drunk by liquor furnished them by Louis Reef was arraigned before Justice Chambers in the Police Court yesterday. He gave his name as John Held and was certified to the Juvenile Department of the Superior Court for trial. Reef, who is alleged to have led the boy astray, was arraigned before Justice Austin and his trial set for Monday morning. He is charged with furnishing liquor to minors.

Miss Katherine Harley, Southern California lady golf champion.

MISS HARLEY IS CHAMPION.

SHE WINS FROM MRS. GRIFFITH AT GOLF.

Play is Close, With Latter Player in Lead at the Seventh Hole, When Miss Harley Takes Spurt—Bad Tee-off at the Ninth Turning Point in the Match.

Miss Catherine C. Harley won the ladies' golf championship for Southern California, yesterday, by defeating Mrs. Frank Griffith, 5 up and 3 to play, on the links of the Los Angeles Country Club.

In the first round, Mrs. Griffith developed wonderful accuracy and by long driving had Miss Harley on the anxious seat. On the trip out, Mrs. Griffith established a lead of one up and maintained it to the seventh hole, but in the drive for the eighth, landed in a bunker and Miss Harley evened up matters, then on the approach to No. 9, forged ahead, making the score one up in her favor. In the tee-off from this green, Mrs. Griffith made a bad drive, but steadied down on the next drive for No. 10, Miss Harley, inspired by her gain, then began to play her usual excellent game and held her opponent off throughout the final round.

The links were in excellent condition and the addition of new bridges removed much of the arduous labor, heretofore standing as an impediment to lady players. Only Mrs. Griffith and Miss Harley were present yesterday, the other ladies who qualified for the tournament, and who played in the semi-finals remaining away. There was a male audience however, and the fine playing of the ladies at times received applause from the spectators.

Miss Harley is one of the best lady golf players in the United States, and is an ardent devotee of the game, often playing out a round, regardless of weather conditions. Her strong forte is steadiness. Some of her drives are remarkable.

In the final match yesterday, Mrs. Griffith made drives that would have done credit to a man, and it was only in the natural hazards that beset the golf player that she was defeated by such a wide margin. Her defeat of Miss Smith of the Pasadena Country Club, was a great achievement, and she will have to be reckoned with in future matches.

MONTE CARLO, April 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The handicap events of the motor-boat races took place today and were a distinct success. The racers were won by Lionel de Rothschild's 150-horse power "Yerrow Napier," which beat the Seacick by five seconds. The other starters were the Mercedes W. N., the Mercedes D. L., the Volauvent and the Antoinette IV. One minute start was accorded to the English boat, which was just enough to enable her to win, though at times the Seacick was almost on even terms with her. Mercedes D. L. was third. The Mercedes W. N. fourth and Volauvent fifth. The cruiser's contest was won by the Florentia IV, with the Calypso second.
